Camp Little Red Door

Adventure is Out There

Maria, a Little Red Door camper for the past three years and winner of the Virginia Wagner Spirit Award, describes her excitement as she learned about Camp Little Red Door, "The best part of all, I would be doing all these activities surrounded by kids who really understood my journey and surrounded by nurses and doctors who could monitor my medications."

Maria recalls watching her younger brother who attended camp with her, "I thought cancer was just mine, but Philip was just as affected by my cancer as I was. His big adventure stopped too. Camp Little Red Door was some place he needed just as much as I do." Maria went on to participate in the hair cutting ceremony to support other campers who have lost their hair due to cancer treatment as well as create meaningful friendships with children who have been through similar experiences. Camp Little Red Door exists so children like Maria can have the same fun camp experience as any other child.

Gloria's Story

A native of Indianapolis, Gloria Mosely has called Central Indiana home for many years. It was where she worked at the Indiana Public Schools police department for 24 years.

In July of 2013, Gloria went in for a mammogram and after her appointment the doctor's office made a few calls to her. She was asked to come to more appointments for tests and biopsies. On August 1 she knew something was not right when her doctor called again and that day, the doctor informed Gloria that she had breast cancer.

Gloria was not taken by surprise, but instead she was more eager to get into treatment and get rid of the breast cancer as soon as possible. However, doctors were concerned about her heart, which showed a false positive for a heart attack. After figuring out that she never had a heart attack, Gloria was ready to face her battle with breast cancer.

"God put in the best team for me," Gloria explained with a big smile. She described her situation as being immediately surrounded by the support of her family, doctors, and nurses as she went through surgery and 50 weeks of treatment. She described the battle with cancer as, "a crippling flu that doesn't go away."

While going through physical therapy after her treatments, Gloria experienced lymphedema, which she describes as swelling of the arms and hands because the blood is not properly flowing out of the arm. Lymphedema is a common side effect of cancer treatment that involves swelling and discomfort.

Unfortunately lymphedema is incurable but can be helped by compression and wrapping. A friend introduced Gloria to Little Red Door where Gloria received her garment. Cynthia, a Client Navigator, called many times to make sure Gloria's new sleeve fit and that Gloria's needs were met. Gloria wrote a note that read:

"To all the people of The Little Red Door Cancer Agency,

Thank you so much for your services and the manner in which you do. From the moment I called I was treated with the utmost respect. My needs were addressed timely and Cynthia kept checking with me to make sure what I needed was being handled. I appreciate everything and it is good to know that not only are you guys meeting people's needs but you care about the people you help. That is not always the case. It is easy to say a big Thank You to people like you and I certainly am. I'm sure my sleeve and glove (when I get used to them) will become a vital part of maintaining my condition. Thank you for helping me do that."

*Sincerely,
Gloria Mosely*

When asked what could prompt such a gracious letter, Gloria replied, "No one has to do anything for you, so make sure you're thankful", Gloria expressed how thankful she is that Little Red Door is here to support people who have been diagnosed with cancer. She talked about the financial burden that can be lifted from cancer patients by Little Red Door and how they can assist with so many things for people who are trying to provide for not only themselves but also their families. Lastly, Gloria wanted it to be known that when any stress can be relieved, a cancer patient will always be grateful.

Adventure is Out There

Campers form a conga line at Camp Little Red Door where they participate in an amazing week-long adventure. Camp offers a variety of activities such as swimming, archery, fishing, canoeing, nature hikes, astronomy, arts and crafts, and more.

Camp Little Red Door is an annual camp for children ages 8-18 affected by cancer in Indiana. Held at Bradford Woods in Martinsville, Indiana, the camp allows children to participate in a variety of activities such as swimming, canoeing, fishing, archery, campfires, arts and crafts, horseback riding, zip lining, nature hikes, a challenge course, and so much more!

With all these activities, safety is an important part of camp. Camp Little Red Door has experienced medical staff on site 24 hours a day, to ensure all medical and treatment needs of the campers are met during the week.

Camp Little Red Door runs from June 19-24 this year. The Robert T. Grand Leadership Academy is for youth ages 16 to 18 who participate in leadership and team building activities the weekend before camp and help mentor new campers during the week.

For more information about Camp Little Red Door, please visit www.littlereddoor.org/camp and make sure to follow our Facebook event for more information! Do not let a child miss out on an experience of a lifetime.
